TWO PROMINENT, FAMILY-OWNED ELECTRICAL CONTRACTORS MERGE

It is with great pleasure that Aschinger Electric and Briner Electric announce that the companies have merged and will do business together under the Aschinger name. Due to the rapid growth Aschinger is experiencing, the opportunity to partner with an established company such as Briner Electric was a natural choice. Much of Briner's staff has made the move to Aschinger, significantly raising the capacity Aschinger has, from design and management personnel to field electricians.

The Aschinger and Fogarty families have been friends for three generations, and bring more than 200 years of combined electrical contracting experience to the St. Louis market.

We look forward to serving the electrical needs of the St. Louis area with an even greater volume of expertise available. Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions concerning this new stage of Aschinger's history.
